2005 National Jamboree Staff Nameplate

The official uniform nameplate, shown at right, is approved by the jamboree committee for wear by Scouts and leaders participating as staff members in the 2005 National Scout Jamboree.

Measuring 1" x 3⅛", the nameplate is highlighted with the red, yellow, and blue jamboree logo. Lettering and edges are yellow. Made of durable plastic, it has two metal clutch post attachments on the back.

While the nameplate is an optional wear item for individual staff members, it is recommended that all contingent members wear a nameplate on their official jamboree uniforms for the sake of uniformity.

To Order: Specify quantities below. Nameplates are available with one line (name only); two lines (name on first line, jamboree position on second line); or three lines (name on first line, jamboree position on second line, jamboree department on third line).

Type or clearly print lettering for each nameplate in the spaces provided below (a maximum of 18 spaces are allowed per line). Make photocopies of this order form to order additional nameplates. Order before April 16, 2005, to ensure pre-jamboree delivery.
